10-HOUR FILM: Way of the Dream. Marie-Louise von Franz interviewed by Fraser Boa (Jungian analyst and brother of Marion Woodman), with commentary by Marion Woodman. Basic concepts of analytical psychology explained and expanded upon, and dreams interpreted by Dr. von Franz. Excellent way to immerse oneself in the language of the Jungian approach to the psyche. Marie-Louise von Franz, who worked closely with Carl Jung as he developed his theories, was one of the most erudite and grounded of the Jungian analysts, and an expert of fairytales, dreams, and symbolic motifs from around the world.
